

Personal Protective Equipment

Course Title:	Personal Protective Equipment
Regulatory & Technical Reference:	OSHA 20 CFR 1910.132-138
Target Groups:	All employees that are required to wear personal protective equipment in the workplace.
Prerequisites:	None.
Objective:	This course is designed to educate workers on when Personal Protective Equipment is required, as well as the proper use of PPE including maintenance and storage. It also covers the types of PPE along with the limitations of each.
Course Design:	The course presentation will include eye and face protection, head protection, hand protection, foot protection, hearing protection, respiratory protection, protective clothing, and limitations of PPE.
Completion Requirements:	Written test passed with a score of 70%
Course Length:	2 Hours
Class Size:	1 – 20 students